13 Informed GC about establishing Educational Testing Services at KLS GIT

Preamble:

Introduction:

This proposal outlines the necessary steps and requirements for setting up test centers under ETS's Certified Test Administrator Services (CTAS) program. Establishing these centers will enable us to administer standardized tests with the highest level of security and integrity, ensuring that the results are recognized globally for their reliability.

Technical and Facility Requirements:

To begin with, our test centers must comply with specific technical and facility standards as outlined by ETS. These include:

- Technical Requirements: Our test centers must have the hardware, software, and internet connectivity to administer ETS tests effectively.
- Facility and Staff Requirements: We must ensure that the physical space of our test centers, as well as the qualifications and training of our staff, meet the standards set by ETS.

Test Center Configuration:

Proper test center configuration is crucial for smooth test administration. ETS provides guidelines on configuring the test center best to optimize the testing environment and process. This includes considerations for seating arrangements, noise control, and other environmental factors that could affect the test-taker's performance.

Integrity and Monitoring:

Maintaining the integrity of the testing process is of utmost importance. To this end:

- The ETS Office of Testing Integrity will actively monitor testing, investigate security issues, and conduct unannounced audits to ensure compliance with their standards.
- Our test centers will be subject to an initial pre-qualification review to assess if they meet the security and technical requirements. This review will also include obtaining verifiable references.

Audits and Quality Assurance:

To maintain high standards of quality and integrity, ETS implements the following measures:

- Regular announced and unannounced audits of test sites will be conducted to ensure ongoing compliance with ETS standards.
